

The Art of Coaching Institutes Instructors

PATRICIA L. SCHARER is a Professor in the College of Education and Human Ecology at The Ohio State University. Her research interests include early literacy development, phonics and word study, and the role of children's literature to foster both literary development and literacy achievement. Her research has been published in Reading Research Quarterly, Research in the Teaching of English, Educational Leadership, Language Arts, The Reading Teacher, Reading Research and Instruction and the yearbooks of the National Reading Conference and the College Reading Association. Professor Scharer is editor of Responsive Literacy: A Comprehensive Framework, co-editor of Extending Our Reach: Teaching for Comprehension in Reading, Grades K-2 and co-author of Rethinking Phonics: Making the Best Teaching Decisions.

SHERRY KINZEL is a Literacy Collaborative Trainer for intermediate and middle school literacy coaches at The Ohio State University. Her classroom experiences include teaching first through sixth grades, as well as Reading Recovery and Title I. Sherry also provides professional development for principals, coaches, and literacy teams in implementing and monitoring best practice in schools. She also shares her knowledge and experience at national conferences, such as the International Reading Association, Title I, and Reading Recovery/K-6 Literacy Conference.

The Art of Coaching Institutes I & II

These unique institutes are for literacy coaches who want practical, grounded ideas about supporting teacher practice. Sessions are suitable for new or experienced coaches.

Offered by Ohio State literacy experts such as:

Sherry Kinzel
Patricia Scharer

Visit our website at www.lcosu.org or contact us for additional information.

The Art of Coaching Institute I

This series of professional development sessions will prepare participants to use coaching as a strategy for developing instructional capacity among literacy teachers. Participants will learn to shape understandings of best practice and prompt reflection to develop more responsive teaching and greater student achievement. These sessions use a hands-on, collaborative approach and will require that participants engage in coaching between sessions.

The Art of Coaching Institute II

This two-day workshop is a follow-up session for participants of Coaching Academy I only. This session will allow you to consider where you are on the Analytic and Reflective Continuum as a coach. You will be REQUIRED to bring a video of a complete 2-day coaching cycle with one teacher (Day 1: Pre-teaching Conversation, Classroom Instruction, & Coaching Conversation and Day 2: Pre-teaching Conversation, Classroom Instruction, & Coaching Conversation).

Quotes from attendees—

“As an administrator, this learning activity supported deeper understanding of not only guided reading but the coaching process as well.”

“...one of the best in my 30-year career in education!”

“...our coaches were amazed at the amount of their own growth over such a short time with the Institute...”
