

2011-12 District Training at OSU

Note: Districts with several schools may be interested in training a District Trainer to build early literacy capacity in their district. District Trainers may train Literacy Coordinators at either the Primary or the Intermediate level for their district.

Qualifications for a District Trainer

1. Trained as a Reading Recovery teacher (primary only)
2. Successful completion of literacy coordinator training (primary or intermediate)
3. Master's degree

Responsibilities of a District Trainer

1. Successfully complete district-level training (primary or intermediate...minimum of 5 weeks of training at OSU)
2. Teach children a minimum of 20 hours/year
3. Train building level literacy coordinators from schools in their district (literacy coordinators in training must be released for training during the school day)
4. Coach literacy coordinators in-training a minimum of 3 1/2 days per week
5. Conduct team-planning sessions for schools interested in becoming Literacy Collaborative schools
6. Submit a district-level research report on the implementation of Literacy Collaborative in the district

Cost of Training and Implementation

1. Instructional/Training Fee
 - a. For a beginning school: $40,000 (includes tuition for 3 graduate credit hours)
 - b. For a continuing school: $24,310 (includes tuition for 3 graduate credit hours)
2. Materials Fee: $500
3. Ongoing Professional Development (8 days per year) at OSU
 - 6 days/year at OSU @ $160/day
 - 2 days guided planning/year at OSU (no registration fee)
4. School Network Affiliation Fee: $260 for each Literacy Coordinator in year 1 (covers affiliation fee) and $460 for each Literacy Coordinator in year 2 and beyond (covers affiliation and research fee); $260 for the district trainer each year
5. Research Fee: District Trainers do not pay a research fee
6. Site visits:
 - Training Year: Two 2-day site visits (travel expenses paid by the district)
 - Year 2: Two 2-day site visits at $750/day (travel expenses paid by the district)
 - Year 4 and beyond: One 2-day site visit required every two years at $750/day (travel expenses paid by the district)
7. National Research & Affiliation Fee: $750 for each LC in their training year