

"I was immersed in a community of peer-learners facing the same challenges. It was an opportunity to grapple with practical administrative issues particular to LC schools. Networking and sharing of ideas were invaluable!"

-Jeff DeVaney, Principal
Lincoln Elementary
Brainerd, MN

"As a central office administrator, I learned how I could support the building principal as he/she worked with the literacy coordinator and staff to make the Literacy Collaborative an exciting and vibrant model for transforming classroom literacy instruction. It has been wonderful for our children... we are growing great readers and writers!"

-Deborah Grove, Ph. D, Title I Supervisor
Williamsport Area School District
Williamsport, PA

"Attending the Principals' Academy was a wonderful hands-on way to see the LC framework in action. I witnessed first hand how 'word walls' can be a guiding force in building students' reading independence. Watching teachers do guided reading groups while students 'monitored their reading/writing' was very powerful."

-Berta Johnson, Principal
Kae Avenue Elementary
Whitehall, OH

Successful change projects always include elements of both pressure & support.

Pressure without support leads to resistance and alienation.

Support without pressure leads to drift or waste of resources.
